She was the youngest of six children of Moses Levi Wijngaard and Rachel Houtman. Sylvain and Flora had 5 children: Henri (centre), who died because of a liver disease in 1939, Cesar (right), who went into hiding during the war, Fritz (left), who served in the British Army during the war, Rachel Horn (left, mother of Mr. Altman), and Annie Horn, who was the youngest.

Sylvain, Flora and Annie were deported from Maastricht in August 25, 1942. On August 31, 1942, they were murdered in Auschwitz. Sylvain and Flora reached the age of 58, and Annie of 22.
